

Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Monday 05 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:

Rain in the east, showers in the west on Tuesday.

This Evening and Tonight:

Staying cloudy, misty across northern Scotland with some showers continuing, especially in the northwest, heavy at times. Drier, clearer conditions developing across the southern half of Scotland.

Tuesday:

A dry bright start across central Scotland, but rain in the far northwest and southeast. Rain turns persistent in the east through the day, with heavy showers in the west.

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:

Further showers on Wednesday, frequent and heavy at times over eastern Scotland. Showers becoming fewer and lighter on Thursday and Friday with sunny spells more likely.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.